

FUEL YOUR FUTURE

How to Log In

A quick guide to signing in and out of your Fuel
Your Future account

First Time Signing In

Follow these steps the very first time you use Fuel Your Future.

- 1 Go to app.culinarymedicineuk.training
- 2 Fill in your first name and email address
- 3 Answer the allergen question (Yes or No). If Yes, tick which allergens apply
- 4 Click Subscribe
- 5 Open your email inbox
- 6 Find the email from Fuel Your Future titled "Confirm & sign in — Fuel Your Future"
- 7 Click the orange Confirm & Sign In → button
- 8 You'll land straight in your dashboard, already logged in

Coming Back Later

If you haven't closed your browser or cleared cookies.

Just go to app.culinarymedicineuk.training — you'll be taken straight into the app. No email needed.

New Device, or It's Been Over 30 Days

- 1 Go to app.culinarymedicineuk.training
- 2 Enter your email address (and first name — it doesn't matter, we already have it)
- 3 Answer the allergen question again (any answer works, we keep your original)
- 4 Click Subscribe
- 5 Check your inbox for an email titled "Sign in — Fuel Your Future"
- 6 Click the orange Confirm & Sign In → button
- 7 You're back in

Troubleshooting

Common issues and how to fix them.

Didn't Get the Email?

- Check your spam or junk folder
- Wait 2 minutes and try again
- Make sure you typed your email correctly

Link Doesn't Work?

- Links expire after 15 minutes — request a new one by submitting the form again
- Links can only be used once — if you've already clicked it, submit the form again for a fresh link

Signing Out

Use the sign-out option in the app. Next time you visit, you'll need to enter your email again.

Keep this guide handy if you're helping someone else get set up — the same steps work for anyone signing in for the first time.
